

UNLAWFUL INTERNET GAMBLING NOTICE

The Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 prohibits any person engaged in the business of betting, as defined, from knowingly accepting credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or any other payment involving a financial institution to settle unlawful internet gambling debts.

Restricted transactions as defined in the Federal Reserve Regulation GG are prohibited from being processed through any United Local Credit Union account or relationship. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which we credit or debit electronic funds transfers, checks, or drafts that are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation by others in unlawful Internet gambling.
